Last update: 14/11/2024

Dear User,

In compliance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) No. 679/2016, Article 8, paragraph 1, of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, Article 16, paragraph 1, of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and Legislative Decree No. 101/2018, which aim to protect the fundamental rights and freedoms of individuals, particularly the right to the protection of personal data, we would like to inform you about how your personal data is processed when you interact with the "myDEWETRA.world" portal of the Department of Civil Protection (available at www.mydewetra.world), your rights, and how you can exercise them.

Please note that these methods apply solely to the "myDEWETRA.world" portal and do not extend to other external websites that may be linked to it.

In this regard, pursuant to Article 13 of the GDPR, we wish to inform you that:

1. Purpose of the processing

The personal data of the User - including special category data (Article 9 GDPR) - will be processed for the following purposes:

- Accreditation and access to the Portal;
- Management of the relationship with users, including providing assistance services;
- Compliance with obligations arising from European or national regulations, or by order of the Judicial Authority;
- Archiving, historical research, and statistical analysis for purposes consistent with the typical activity of the Portal;
- Providing potential services for informational updates or similar, related to the typical activity of the Portal.

2. Voluntariness of providing data

The User is free to voluntarily provide the requested personal data. However, the failure to provide certain personal data may make it impossible to use the Portal.

In compliance with the data minimization principle under Art. 1 of the GDPR, the Data Controller is committed to collecting and processing only the data that is appropriate and necessary for the purposes described in paragraph 1.

3. Data Controller

The Data Controller is the National Civil Protection Department (is a structure of the Presidency of the Council of Ministers) located at Via Ulpiano 11 – 00193 Rome – Italy.

4. Data Protection Officer (DPO)

The Data Protection Officer (DPO) can be contacted at the following addresses:

- PEC email: protezionecivile@pec.governo.it
- Email: responsabileprotezionedatidpc@protezionecivile.it

5. Processing methods

User data is primarily processed electronically and/or digitally, or, where in paper form, it is automated and transmitted through telematic networks.

The Data Controller implements technical and organizational measures that are appropriate to ensure a level of security commensurate with the type of data being processed. To this end, the Data Controller utilizes both its own systems and third-party systems (with which contractual agreements have been established) to ensure that adequate data protection standards are met.

6. Types of data processed

Personal Data Voluntarily Provided by the User – when using the services offered by the Portal, the User voluntarily provides certain personal information, such as name, surname, email address, phone number, etc. This data is collected either through the completion of forms on the Portal or via emails sent to the support addresses listed on the website. Some of this information is necessary in order to provide proper responses to user requests.

The processing of sensitive or judicial data is excluded. If such data is provided voluntarily by the user, it will be promptly deleted.

Cookie Policy – For information regarding the cookies used by the Portal, please refer to the dedicated Cookie Policy.

7. Communication and dissemination of personal data

User data is processed exclusively by the personnel and collaborators of the Department of Civil Protection. Specifically, this data is processed by CIMA Research Foundation, located at Via Armando Magliotto 2, 17100 Savona, Italy, which serves as the Department's competence center.

Certain processing activities may also be carried out by third parties to whom the Data Controller assigns specific tasks or parts of tasks necessary for the provision of services. For these third parties, designated by the Data Controller as Data Processors, appropriate data protection obligations are established through contracts or other legal instruments in accordance with EU or Member State law. These obligations include operational instructions, particularly regarding the implementation of adequate technical and organizational measures to ensure the confidentiality and security of the data, as outlined in Article 32 of the GDPR.

Additionally, User data provided to access the Portal may be disclosed to:

- Entities to whom data must be provided in order to comply with legal obligations, regulations, or EU legislation, or to comply with a judicial authority order;
- Other third parties, where required by law, or where disclosure is necessary to protect the Data Controller in legal proceedings, in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

8. Transfer of personal data to non-EU countries

The collected and processed data will not be transferred to companies or other entities outside the European Union.

9. Retention period for data

The collected data will be retained for no longer than necessary for the purposes for which it was collected or subsequently processed, in accordance with legal obligations.

10. Rights of data subjects

The User can exercise the rights referred to in Articles 15 et seq. of the EU Regulation 679/2016 (GDPR), where applicable; these include the right to request correction or deletion of registration data, restriction of processing, or to object to processing, in the cases provided for.

Requests to exercise these rights must be sent to the Data Controller at the following email address: protezionecivile@pec.governo.it

It is also always possible to exercise the right to file a complaint with a supervisory authority and, if the User deems it appropriate, to approach the Data Protection Authority if the processing has been carried out in a way that does not comply with the Regulation, in accordance with Article 77 of the GDPR.
